Resources for Work Connections

August 13, 2009

11 AM to 6 PM

Location:

James E. Bruce Convention Center

303 Conference Center Drive

Hopkinsville, KY

Booth Highlights

- Free opportunity to showcase your business
- Enhance your future talent pool by showing potential candidates the skills and education your company requires
- Strengthen networking partnerships with other local businesses
- Showcase information about your nonprofit organization

- Career awareness and preparation event for the community
- Interactive event for employers, educators and service agencies
- Even if your company or agency is currently not hiring, we invite you to come out and showcase your organization or product by having a booth at this informational event
- Organizations that provide skills and job readiness training
- Organizations that provide support to unemployed and underemployed
- Free event to all

This event will answer:

"What type of jobs are in the Christian County area?"

Reserve your booth by August 5th.

To reserve a booth or more information, email: operationworkforce@gmail.com. Don't delay making reservation! A table and chairs will be provided, as well as wireless and limited electrical outlets, if needed. Door prizes will be available for participants, so please donate items for the drawings. See you there!

Sponsored by:

West Kentucky Workforce Investment Board

HOPKINSVILLE CHRISTIAN COUNTY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

OET Office of Employment and Training

HOPKINSVILLE CHRISTIAN COUNTY KENTUCKY

Hopkinsville Community College